In and out of black outs, couldn't find the path out. Every day I woke up with conviction, only to be led down the path of addiction. I often wondered if I had a split personality, an evil twin, the beast within. It fed on immorality and tricked me to believe in immortality.

Feeling lifeless, disgusted by my vices, all the lies, I just couldn't look myself in the eyes. Finally, one night shivering in jail it came to me, I had to stop blaming me. Something from within reminded me, there is a solution, and I can end this manic brain pollution.

With one mighty prayer I was spared. A feeling of hope washed over me. Despite the uncomfortable cold, the looming devastation of the upcoming consequences, the fear that I could never get sober, the anger of not being able to smoke another cigarette for several hours, it all dissipated with one single memory. A few months earlier, at the end of a meeting where I picked up yet another white chip and tried to share but couldn't talk through my tears, an old timer kindly smiled at me and said, "Just keep coming back, with God all things are possible." Something inside felt strong, I knew there was a place I belonged.

Instead of fighting, I got to writing, and highlighting. The admission of powerlessness surprisingly empowered me. New comrades, new habits, new opportunities, and a new best friend, Heavy G. (up in the limousine). There were too many miracles, I knew they were spiritual. It's been a journey; I can't believe I'm almost an attorney. Gratitude is the attitude.

Thank you, Thank you, Thank you! — Sahsa H. Mandarin YPG

Third Concept

" As a traditional means of creating and maintaining a clearly defined working relation between the groups, the Conference, the A.A. General Service Board and its several service corporations, staffs, committees and executives, and of thus insuring their effective leadership, it is here suggested that we endow each of these elements of world service with a traditional "Right of Decision." JOIN THE FAITHFUL FIVERS!

Faithful Fivers are members who contribute $5 or more a month directly to the Intergroup office to help support Intergroup's ability to carry the message of Alcoholics Anonymous. The program came about when members remember wasting more than $5 drinking. It's a small contribution to the program that has saved so many.
