We are in the same boat as any intergroup in the world. New things happening for meetings. Online meetings, outdoor meetings, large rooms with 6 foot spacing between chairs.

There are several new ways to continuing our experience, strength and help to recovering alcoholics.

In regards to on line meetings: please share as much as possible with groups and individuals. We have had phone calls that some of the meeting connection information was incorrect (web address, access code, time of meeting, etc.) and were unable to attend that meeting. If you have a regular online meeting send the information to us and we will put it on the web.

Several of US and international intergroups have listing of their on line meetings. Check them out it's a good source of additional meetings.

This site will be helpful: <https://www.aa-intergroup.org/>

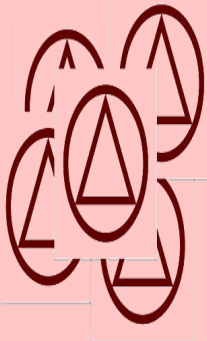

GSO has a web page regarding on line meetings that is very useful also.

https://www.aa.org/pages/en\_US/options-for-meeting-online

With our own Higher Power and our AA members we will help each other through these new uncharted waters. Our phone lines continue to be manned 24 hours a day 7 days a week.

Call your sponsor, call your AA friends and support meetings online and share your experience.

Last, but not least follow the CDC guidelines, federal, state and local recommendations and mandates.

WORKING WITH OTHERS

“Practical experience shows that nothing will so much insure immunity from drinking as intensive work with other alcoholics.”

“My Monkey” By Kansas W.

My addiction lays tucked away, Sleeping deep within my mind
 Waiting for me to wake him up, But somehow my monkey never really sleeps,
 Maybe with one eye open he always keeps,
 Waiting for the opportunity to bring the worst out in me,
 My monkey in my mind keeps me from reality!

Who's to say I'm wrong or I'm right? My monkey says, “Who gives a crap?”
 and passes me my bottle.

There's got to be a better life, buy my monkey reassures me,
 “It gets no better for people like me, hey, psssst, Kansas, It's okay to get drunk.”

See, I told you, that's my monkey again, lurking deep within my mind.
 He's always filling my mind with negativity and doubt,
 Deep inside me I know he's wrong, but everyday is a battle To keep my monkey gone!

RESENTMENT

Resentment has been a trigger for me. My ego gets in the way often and I want everything to be FAIR. Well, life is not fair. I believe that we all must go through difficult situations in order to learn. Through the Big Book of Alcoholics Anonymous and the help of sponsors and many wise people in my network I can now recognize this demon, resentment, sooner. I can ask God to teach me what I need to learn and get out of myself. Here is my chance to say "Bless him, Change me". Seeing the issue from the other side always helps.

Page 66 of the Big Book says: " It is plain that a life which includes deep resentment leads only to futility and unhappiness. To the precise extent that we permit these (resentments), do we squander the hours that might have been worthwhile." I must pray for the person or cause of my resentment. Submitted by Shirley J.

Step 4 Prayer When a person offended we said to ourselves, "This is a sick man. How can I be helpful to him?
God save me from being angry. Thy will be done. The Step 4 Prayer from "How it Works"
