Twelve Tips on Keeping Your Holiday Season Sober and Joyous

Holiday parties without liquid spirits may still seem a dreary prospect to new A.A.s. But many of us have enjoyed the happiest holidays of our lives sober—an idea we would never have dreamed of, wanted, or believed possible when drinking. Here are some tips for having an all-round ball without a drop of alcohol.

1. Line up extra A.A. activities for the holiday season. Arrange to take newcomers to meetings, answer the phones at a clubhouse or central office, speak, help with dishes, or visit the alcoholic ward at a hospital.

2. Be host to A.A. friends, especially newcomers. If you don't have a place where you can throw a formal party, take one person to a diner and spring for the coffee.

3. Keep your A.A. telephone list with you all the time. If a drinking urge or panic comes—postpone everything else until you've called an A.A. member.

4. Find out about the special holiday parties, meetings, or other celebrations given by groups in your area, and go. If you're timid, take someone newer than you are.

5. Skip any drinking occasion you are nervous about. Remember how clever you were at excuses when drinking? Now put the talent to good use. No office party is as important as saving your life.

6. If you have to go to a drinking party and can't take an A.A. with you, keep some candy handy.

7. Don't think you have to stay late. Plan in advance an "important date" you have to keep.

8. Worship in your own way.

9. Don't sit around brooding. Catch up on those books, museums, walks, and letters.

10. Don't start now getting worked up about all those holiday temptations. Remember—"one day at a time."

11. Enjoy the true beauty of holiday love and joy. Maybe you cannot give material gifts—but this year, you can give love.

12. "Having had a ..." No need to spell out the Twelfth Step here, since you already know it.

Step Twelve

“Having had a spiritual awakening as the result of these steps, we tried to carry this message to alcoholics, and to practice these principles in all our affairs.”

With each passing day of our lives, may every one of us sense more deeply the inner meaning of A.A.'s simple prayer:

“God grant us the serenity to accept the things we cannot change, Courage to change the things we can, And the wisdom to know the difference.”

Tradition Twelve

“Anonymity is the spiritual foundation of all our Traditions, ever reminding us to place principles before personalities.”

Concept Twelve

The Conference shall observe the spirit of A.A. tradition, taking care that it never becomes the seat of perilous wealth or power; that sufficient operating funds and reserve be its prudent financial principle; that it place none of its members in a position of unqualified authority over others; that it reach all important decisions by discussion, vote, and, whenever possible, by substantial unanimity; that its actions never be personally punitive nor an incitement to public controversy; that it never perform acts of government, and that, like the Society it serves, it will always remain democratic in thought and action.

AA in the Time of the Covid19 Virus

The events of 2020 have required a major shift in the fellowship of the AA community. This has presented many problems as well unique opportunities for all of us. We started the year with over 600 meetings per week in the Northeast Florida area. By early March all face to face meetings were shut down and we rapidly shifted to online meetings. We currently have over 110 local online meetings (see neflaa.org for list). While some groups have recently begun to have face to face meetings, online meeting will continue to be an important venue to carry the message for some time.

The members of the NEFL Archives Committee want to preserve the observations and experiences of members of the Northeast Florida community to give all of us a personal understanding of these times and provide future generations an accurate accounting of what we “old timers” experienced.” The goal of the Archives committee is to develop a journal which includes the experiences of many interested members.

The Archival Committee started the project in mid-March. We began to journal the impact of Zoom meetings here in the NEFL area, and around the country. We hope you will join us in this historical moment for AA. We hope you will share your experience(s). As you participate in Zoom AA meetings take a few notes to summarize your impressions and what impact the meeting had on you. What have you learned?

Some people may share about their home group and its evolution into the Zoom format and how they have progressed these last seven months. This is new territory to all in AA. We have always been face to face when we make our contacts with a cup of coffee in hand and a table to lean on. Now Zoom has put us on a PC (alcoholic square screen) or our i-phones. A very different approach to sponsorship and service is required. Have we succeeded in maintaining our health and ability to reach out and help those still suffering and needing help? GSO has been highly supportive of the switch to Zoom meetings. The Grapevine Magazine published two articles focusing on Zoom meetings in the October 2020 issue.

We are preparing a journal of impressions and experiences from personal points of view throughout this period. It is our hope to understand and document how we AA’s lived in the time of Covid-19. How did it impact your program, what changed, what are you doing differently to “work” your program? Please send your comments to twicks41fl@gmail.com
