thank you!

We want to thank everyone who made the Intergroup banquet such a huge success. The Co-Chairs Monique H and John C did a fantastic job planning and hosting the event, Lon L was a great cake auctioneer, Deborah C was an inspiring speaker and the volunteers especially from Oxford and Alco House were super. We especially want to thank the people who donated cakes and the fellowship who came to the event. We needed a great party and we had one!! —Kevin Jr Intergroup Chair

GRATITUDE

By Scott W. , Utica, New York

- Today I am grateful...For smiles that start in the heart
- That everyday I a given a reprieve
- That all my old thoughts of my drinking days, those thoughts about alcohol and maintaining have been replaced with thoughts of recovery
- That in sobriety I have a place in life
- That today I am not afraid to stand in my place, to voice what is my truth
- That more than likely today I will have enough
- For the sustaining power of God

We were not free. We were prisoners of our illness. What our illness wanted, we give it our dignity, our self-respect, even our families. Our prison walls were made of denial, false pride, and self-will run riot. Now we know that brick walls don't have to stop us. We don't have to bang our heads on them. Slowly, we're learning about freedom. We're learning that freedom comes from within. It comes when we think clearly and make our own choices. It comes when we follow a better way of life. It comes when we take care of ourselves. It comes when we take responsibility. The key to freedom is in loving our Higher Power.
