Step 3: Made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understood Him.

Reprinted from aa.org, with permission of A.A. World Services, Inc.

Tradition 3: Our membership ought to include all who suffer from alcoholism. Hence we may refuse none who wish to recover. Nor ought A.A. membership ever depend upon money or conformity. Any two or three alcoholics gathered together for sobriety may call themselves an A.A. group, provided that, as a group, they have no other affiliation.

Concept 3: As a traditional means of creating and maintaining a clearly defined working relation between the groups, the Conference, the A.A. General Service Board and its several service corporations, staffs, committees and executives, and of thus insuring their effective leadership, it is here suggested that we endow each of these elements of world service with a traditional "Right of Decision."

In my morning reading...this stood out to me because it talked about having no interest in recovering when I was drinking. I didn't know that I had a problem. I wanted to believe that I didn't have a problem. I didn't want to stop drinking. The idea of not drinking actually scared me. I thought that my life was over. Part of me was worried about how I would handle life without drinking. Not only has recovery given me freedom from alcohol, but it has transformed my life. I see the person that I once was and take a deep breath. I am no longer that person. I fully understand that I have a ways to go, but I see how far I've come. I want to continue to grow. AA has given me a new life. A life that I never thought was possible. I am willing to go to any length to have this new life. It's not just about not drinking for me. It means I continue to heal emotionally. Recovery has saved my life. Recovery has given me a life that is worth living. I wouldn't want it any other way.
