Monthly Motivation

Step Seven

“Humbly asked Him to remove our Shortcomings.”

“The chief activator of our defects has been self-centered fear—primarily fear that we would lose something we already possessed or would fail to get something we demand. Living upon a basis of unsatisfied demands, we were in state of continual disturbance and frustration. Therefore, no peace was to be had unless we could find a means of reducing these demands. The difference between a demand and a simple request is plain to anyone.”

(12 Steps and 12 Traditions, page 76)

Tradition Seven

“Every A.A. group ought to be fully self-supporting, declining outside contributions.”

“When these facts were printed, there was a profound reaction. To people familiar with endless drives for charitable funds, A.A. presented a strange and refreshing spectacle. Approving editorials here and abroad generated a wave of confidence in the integrity of Alcoholics Anonymous. They pointed out that the irresponsible had become responsible, and that by making financial independence part of its tradition, Alcoholics Anonymous had revived an ideal that its ear had almost forgotten.”

(12 Steps and 12 Traditions, page 165)

Motivative Quote From Big Book

“For years I was sure the worst thing that could happen to a nice guy like me would be that I would turn out to be an alcoholic. Today I find it’s the best thing that has ever happened to me. And if I don’t know what’s good for me, then I don’t know what’s good or bad for anyone. So I’m better off if I don’t give advice, don’t figure I know what’s best, and just accept life on life’s terms, as it is today—especially my own life, as it actually is. Before A.A. I judged myself by my intentions, while the world was judging me by my actions.”

(Alcoholics Anonymous, Pg. 417-418. Dr. Paul O.)

GRAPEVINE

A New Book!

GRATITUDE
Being thankful, appreciating sobriety, helping others and living life to its fullest

STORIES FROM AA GRAPEVINE

Gratitude is a collection of powerful personal stories about being thankful. With warmth and humor, the stories, written by AA members, illustrate the many ways the program of recovery can improve one's perspective to help them enjoy each day to the fullest. The book includes chapters on spirituality, fellowship, family, service, getting through tough times and more. All stories were previously published in Grapevine, the International Journal of Alcoholics Anonymous. A great book to start the day. Also makes a wonderful gift.
